

Don Hicks Bio Sheet

Don Hicks began hunting with his grandfather when he was 5 years old. The time in the field with his grandfather ignited a lifetime passion for the outdoors and the pursuit of wild game.

Don now has over 50 years of experience chasing wild game with his rifle, shotgun, muzzle loader, and bow. He has learned over the years a successful hunt does not always end with a trophy on the wall, but rather a "Real Moment of Truth" in the heart revealed by His creator Almighty God.

Along with being an avid hunter, Don has been an evangelist and pastor for many years.

Don is also the creator and voice of the weekly radio broadcast, "Treasure in the Field." He recently has also been named the National Director of Prayer for COFA (Christian Outdoor Fellowship of America).

Don also serves as a pro-staff member for Without Excuse Ministries based in Southern Indiana. Don's key role at Without Excuse Ministries is the oversight of prayer request that come into the website . He also assists the Board of Directors in praying over both the long and short term goals, as well as the strategic planning and outreach goals, of Without Excuse Ministries.
